

Interested in a $1,000 Scholarship?

Planning a construction career?

The KBE Foundation is offering $1000 Construction Career Scholarships for qualified Connecticut Technical High School seniors who are pursuing careers in the construction trades or a college degree program in construction management. Scholarships can be used for tuition, continuing education, books, licensing / exam fees, and/or tools.

How to apply:

- Write a 300-500-word essay on why you are pursuing a career in the building industry - we like good stories!
- Include your post-high school education plans – what construction trade training or licenses, or what construction management degree you are pursuing and where you hope to get a job.
- You must also complete the attached application and have it signed by your guidance counselor, teacher, or principal.
- Email your essay and application form to jlawhorn@kbebuilding.com

Do You Qualify?

Are you ...

- Graduating in June 2023?
- Pursuing a construction career?
- Need additional education, skills training, tools, certifications, licenses, or degrees to achieve your ideal construction job?
- If you're not sure if you qualify, just ask us!

Applications & Essays Due April 28, 2023
